Basis of the Syllabus
National syllabus has been designed to provide one standard foundation for Atfal and Nasirat
National syllabus uses the 2011 Waqfe Nau Syllabus as baseline
This syllabus allows small and large Jamaats to divide "levels" according to their local needs
Basics of Religious Education (BRE) is the major "source text" in addition to others
This syllabus will inshallah be reassessed in 2017 for any other improvements or changes
Syllabus was compiled by Khuddamul Ahmadiyya, Lajna Imaillah and National Tarbiat Department
Suggestions/ Instructions
One period of equal duration should be allocated for each level and Auxiliary meeting
Page numbers in the column titled "Reference" refer to "The Basics of Religious Education" book.
All questions pertaining to execution or content of syllabus should first be discussed in the local Board
Please do not change the content of this syllabus without consulting with National Team
The syllabus is designed to be taught in three terms during a year. Exams are optional at this stage.
Students can be grouped together in a class based on competency instead of age
Bonus section is added for extra credits for high achieving students
Detailed workbooks to supplement this syllabus will be developed in the future, inshallah.
