USA National Syllabus Level Guidelines - Release 2017 -1

Basis of the Syllabus

- National syllabus has been designed to provide one standard foundation for Atfal and Nasirat
- National syllabus uses the 2011 Waqfe Nau Syllabus as baseline
- This syllabus allows small and large Jamaats to divide "levels" according to their local needs
- Workbook and Basics of Religious Education (BRE) are main sources of course content
- Syllabus was compiled by Khuddam-ul-Ahmadiyya, Lajna Imaillah and National Tarbiat Department

Suggestions/ Instructions

- One period of equal duration should be allocated for each level and Auxiliary meeting
- All questions pertaining to execution or content of syllabus should first be discussed in the local Board
- Please do not change the content of this syllabus without consulting with National Team
- The syllabus is designed to be taught in three terms during a year. Exams are optional at this stage.
- Please use only the recommended/referenced books to cover the suggested syllabus
- Students can be grouped together in a class based on competency instead of age
- Syllabus content L1/L2 applies to Sitara Atfal, L3 applies to Hilal Atfal, L4 applies to Qamar Atfal and L5/L6 applies to Badr Atfal
