(Review Part I First)

Tarbiyyat Topic
Majlis Atfal ul Ahmadiyya USA

Girls

Can we have girlfriends? Why Not?

Can we talk to girls in school?

Where do we draw the line?

Girls - where to draw line?

Islam requires separation of the sexes especially as boys and girls grow up

We have separate Atfal and Nasirat classes and separate prayer halls for men and women

Girls - where to draw line?

We should respect girls - Women/Girls have a high status in Islam

We can talk to girls in class/school but should not make friendships

We should not even be “just friends”

Girls - where to draw line?

By avoiding interactions in social settings, we can prevent a lot of other challenges later on

When in school we should focus on our education - that is the primary goal of going to school

Girls - where to draw line?

The Holy Quran says:

“Say to the believing men to restrain their looks” (24:31)

Don't stare at girls - that is not respectful

Be Confident - If asked tell people that Ahmadi Muslims don't have girlfriends.

School Dances/Prom

Why can't we go to prom?

Should Atfal participate in Dances?

Is it Mandatory to go to prom or dances?

How to say NO if you are invited?

School Dances/Prom

Dancing is against the dignity of Ahmadi Atfal

Proms/Dances are optional so avoid them

We already know that we should not have girlfriends
- so whats the point of going to prom?

School Dances/Prom

Our friends should know what our beliefs are

They should know “Who We Are”

Then no one will ask us to do anything against our beliefs

People respect individuals who stay true to their beliefs

Drugs/Alcohol

What would you do if a close friends asks you try it?

Not even a little bit?

Do you stay friends with that person?

Drugs/Alcohol

Intoxicants(drugs/alcohol) are forbidden in Islam

They are bad for you health so even a little quantity is forbidden

Drugs are addictive - very hard to stop if started

Drugs/Alcohol

Be firm and steadfast in saying NO

Dont be friends with such people who ask you to do things against Islam regardless of who they are

Allah says:

Keep company with the righteous [9:119]

UnIslamic Holidays

Which Holidays are against Islam?

How can we tell the difference?

Is it OK to give Valentine Day gifts?

Should we go Trick or Treating?

UnIslamic Holidays

Halloween is a pagan holiday

Valentine's Day has pagan and Christian roots

Christmas and Easter are Christian holidays

Most of these holidays are celebrated for commercial purposes

UnIslamic Holidays

Ahmadi Muslim Atfal don't celebrate holidays that are unislamic

We can convey our best wishes when someone is celebrating a religious holiday but should not join in

Holidays that are not against Islam like Thanksgiving, National Holidays like 4th July should be celebrated

UnIslamic Holidays

If we “know ourselves” and are confident about our beliefs it is very easy to explain to others why don’t we celebrate certain holidays

There are other holidays that Americans don’t celebrate like Chinese New Year and Pakistan’s Independence day because they are not relevant

Similarly we only celebrate holidays that are relevant to our beliefs

Grades/Exams/Tests

What is the best way to do well in school?

How can we ask for help when stuck?

How can we focus on Studies?

Grades/Exams/Tests

Main purpose of going to school is education

Studies should be our focus and priority

Ahmadi Muslim Atfal are hardworking so we should strive for the best grades

Grades/Exams/Tests

Recite this prayer(dua) often:

رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا ﴿١١٥﴾

‘O my Lord, increase me in knowledge’

Grades/Exams/Tests

Ask teachers and parents for help if you don't understand anything

We can only learn by asking and practice - Don't be shy or afraid to ask for help

Be disciplined in studies - reduce distractions

What distractions can we reduce? How?
