

Descent of Isa (A.S)

Part II

Majlis Atfalul
Ahmadiyya USA

RECAP

Previous month's presentation

- 01 Isa (A.S) has passed away
Numerous Quranic verses and Ahadith prove that
- 02 Isa (A.S) won't descend from heaven
Hadith do not mention heaven. Nor descend does not means coming from the heaven.
- 03 Messiah will be from among the Muslims
Isa (A.S) is mentioned in the ahadith to show likeness of the Muslim Messiah

Let's look at the hadith again

Allah's Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

"The Hour will not be established until the son of Mary, descends amongst you as a just ruler, he will break the cross, kill the pigs, and abolish the Jiziya tax. Money will be in abundance so that nobody will accept it."

Sahih Bukhari 2476

Did Promised Messiah (A.S) fulfill the hadith?

- We learnt that the Isa ibn Maryam mentioned in the hadith is the Promised Messiah (A.S).
- Therefore, he must have fulfilled the rest of the hadith.
- Let's go over each point one by one.

Just Ruler...

- The Messiah will judge according to the Quran and Hadith.
- It cannot be Isa (A.S) because the Quran says he follows Torah and Injeel.
- The Messiah would not be a tyrant.
- He would be just to both Muslims and non-Muslims.
- His justice is now spread through his Khulafa and the Jamaat that he established.

[JUST RULER] Example of Promised Messiah (A.S)

There was court case by a group of villagers against the father of the Promised Messiah (A.S)

The Promised Messiah (A.S) was asked to testify against his own father in court.

This was due to his reputation of telling the truth.

His father lost a lot of land because of his testifying statement!

His opponents never doubted that Ahmad would tell the truth plainly and would not seek to slant it or embroider it to his own benefit. Once, in a much later case, when the family lawyer asked Ahmad what he was going to say, Ahmad said he could only tell the truth. After he had listened to Ahmad the lawyer shrugged his shoulders and said there was no point in going into court. When the case was called he went before the judge and withdrew the case.

In another later case the defendant called Ahmad as a witness for the defence. Ahmad's evidence was crucial and the case was decided in the defendant's favour. It caused a major family row.

"I cannot be expected to deny the truth" was Ahmad's only comment.

Indeed his reputation for telling the truth, no matter the consequences was so strong that often the defendants would tell the judge that they were happy to abide by Ahmad's statement regarding the facts in dispute. Ahmad would then set out the facts as he knew them and sometimes this resulted in the case being decided against his father.

In the case of the trees the villagers told the judge, "Ask Mirza Ghulam Ahmad what is the truth."

Ahmad gave his opinion which was in favour of the villagers, and the judge decided against Ahmad's father.

Messiah will break the Cross

- The Messiah will not go around the world breaking crosses. It will be absurd to believe that such is a mission of a prophet.
- He would disprove the foundations of Christianity through his arguments, and prove how Jesus (AS) did not die on the cross.

Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad

One of the most prominent Sunni Muslim scholars of the time said in a tribute:

“The literature produced by Mirza sahib in his confrontation with the Christians and the Aryas has received the seal of general approval, and for this distinction he needs no introduction. We have to acknowledge the value and greatness of this literature from the bottom of our hearts, now that it has done its work. This is because that time cannot be forgotten nor effaced from the mind when Islam was besieged by attacks on all sides, and the Muslims, who had been entrusted with the defence of Islam by the Real Defender, as the means of defence in this world of causes and means, were lying flat sobbing in the aftermath of their shortcomings, doing nothing for Islam or not being able to do anything for it.”

“Then began that counter-attack from the side of the Muslims in which Mirza sahib had a part. That defence not only shattered to bits the initial influence of Christianity, which it really had due to support from the government, and saved thousands, nay millions, of Muslims from this dangerous attack which would have succeeded, but the talisman of Christianity itself was blown away like smoke.” Wakeel, Amritsar

Mirza Hairat of Delhi

Editor of the Curzon Gazette and he wrote in the a Promised Messiah (as)' obituary:

“The services of the deceased, which he rendered to Islam in confrontation with the Christians and the Arya Samajists, deserve the highest praise. He completely changed the flow of the debate, and laid the foundations of a new literature in India.”

“We admit, not because of our being Muslims but being seekers after truth, that the top most Arya Samaj leader or Christian missionary could not dare open his mouth to confront the late Mirza sahib. The incomparable books which he wrote in refutation of the Arya Samaj and Christian creeds, and the shattering replies he gave to the opponents of Islam, we have not seen any rational refutation of these except that the Aryas have been hurling abuse at the Founder and the teachings of Islam in an uncouth manner, without being able to give a sensible reply. Although the deceased was a Punjabi, yet his pen was so powerful that today in the whole of the Punjab, even in the whole of India, there is no author of such power.” and it is true that, on reading some of his writings, one goes into a state of ecstasy. Although he did not receive any regular education in Arabic language, literature or grammar, he gained such a proficiency in Arabic by his God-given intellect and nature that he could write it quite naturally.”

“His followers are not only common and unlearned people, but include able and bright graduates, viz., B.A., M.A., and very learned Ulama. It is a matter of no small pride for a religious leader of this day that persons educated on traditional lines as well as persons educated on modern lines, both types, should become his followers. Surviving the heat of predictions of his death, opposition, and criticism, he cleared his way to reach the highest pinnacle of progress.”

The Christian feared and acknowledged him

“This man, Ghulam Ahmad... was deemed superior in ability, was chosen and consented to represent Islam against Christianity”

(Missionary Herald: Containing the Proceedings of The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Volume XC, Page 167, 1894)

“All his writings resound with the one note that Christ died like all other mortals and is no longer living...But he is determined to make him smaller than Mohammad at any cost”

(The Missionary Review of the World, Volume XX, No.10, Page 751, October 1907 Printed in the United States of America)

Kill Pigs

- The Messiah will not go around the world killing pigs. It is not literal again!
- He would be tasked with dealing with those who have swine-like characteristics i.e evil-minded and low character.
- In the interpretation of dreams, the one who kills a pig, is the one who would argue with a evil minded person.

Malik related to me from Yahya ibn Said that Isa ibn Maryam encountered a pig on the road. He said to it, "Go in peace." Somebody asked, "Do you say this to a pig?" Isa said, "I fear lest I accustom my tongue to evil speech."

USC-MSA web (English) reference : Book 56, Hadith 4
Arabic reference : Book 56, Hadith 1817

Muwatta Malik

As we see from the above Hadith, if Isa(A.S) comes, he CANNOT kill pigs.

No true Muslim can believe a task of a prophet will be to hunt pigs!

Abolish Jizyah Tax

- The Jizyah tax is taken from non-Muslim citizens after a religious war to protect them and provide for them.
- Abolishing it means that religious warfare would be put to an end during the time of the Messiah.
- Islam was to be spread using the Jihad of the pen only.

Wealth in abundance

- The wealth in this Hadith signifies the priceless books of the Promised Messiah (AS).
- He wrote over 80 books defending Islam, yet we see many people in the world who choose to not accept him or his priceless books.

Dajjal

One of the missions of the Messiah is to kill Dajjal (The Anti-Christ) as per many sayings of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W).

Non-Ahmadis think Dajjal is a one-eyed human like a monster.

He has some extraordinary abilities like bringing the dead people back to life and has a donkey that is as big as a airplane.

Dajjal

This is the Ahmadiyya view of the Dajjal

Summary

1. The Promised Messiah (A.S) completed all of the tasks of the prophesied Messiah mentioned in the Ahadith.
2. Each prophecy by the Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) had a deeper and profound meaning.
3. The Character of the Promised Messiah (A.S) is a testimony to his truthfulness.
